

E. Cabell Brand

GENERAL INFORMATION

Chairman - The Cabell Brand Center for Global Poverty and Resource Sustainability Studies

Cabell Brand returned to his home in Salem in 1949 and took over his father's small direct selling shoe business, the Ortho-Vent Shoe Company. Using this as a base, he expanded the business, formed The Stuart McGuire Company, Inc., took it public in 1970 and sold it in 1986 to the Home Shopping Network.

He founded Total Action Against Poverty in the Roanoke Valley in 1965 and was its President and Chairman for 30 years. During that 30 year period, he helped start many innovative programs such as – Head Start – the Child Health Investment Project (CHIP) – Virginia CARES – Virginia Water Project, all focused on low income people.

He is married to the former Shirley Hurt and together they have five children and 13 grandchildren.

Author of the Book: If Not Me, Then Who? How you can help with Poverty, Economic Opportunity, Education, Healthcare, Environment, Racial Justice, and Peace Issues in America. 1st and 2nd Editions.
